Management Discussion of Fund Performance

June 7, 2018

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance intends to present the significant factors and developments during the year ended March 31, 2018, that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook. For information on the Fund's longer-term performance, as applicable, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report. In this report, Counsel or the Manager refers to Counsel Portfolio Services Inc., the manager of the Fund.

In addition, net asset value (NAV) refers to the value of the Fund or a series as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks to be a core portfolio holding for investors by pursuing a balance between earning income and long-term capital growth and aims to reduce the impact of sustained periods of negative market performance. The Fund invests in global fixed-income and equity securities, either directly through securities of other investment funds (the Underlying Funds).

Risk

The risks of investing in the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus. The Fund is suitable for retirees or pre-retirees seeking a global balanced fund to hold as a key part of their portfolio; want a medium to long-term investment; can handle the ups and downs of stock and bond markets; desire protection from sustained periods of negative investment market performance; and have a low to medium tolerance for risk.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund's Series A securities is discussed below. The performance of all other series offered by the Fund is shown in the Past Performance section of this report. Series returns may differ for a number of reasons, including if the series was not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period and because of different levels of fees and expenses charged to each series. Please refer to the Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by each series.

During the year, the Fund's Series A securities returned 4.72% (after deducting fees and expenses). This compares with a 6.42% return of a blended benchmark comprised of 40% FTSE TMX Canada Bond Universe Index (returned 1.36%), and 60% MSCI World Index (returned 9.81%) (the "Blended Benchmark"). All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, none of which are reflected in the index returns.

The Fund underperformed the broad-based MSCI World Index. The broad-based index is comprised of global equities and has no exposure to fixed income securities, whereas the Fund invests in both equity and fixed-income securities. Given the Fund's composition, the Blended Benchmark provides a more meaningful comparison for relative performance.

The Fund underperformed the Blended Benchmark primarily due to the Fund's exposure to Counsel Global Low Volatility Equity, which underperformed the broader MSCI World Index. The underlying fund has a strategic underweight in Cyclical sectors and overweight positions to Defensive sectors. Cyclical sectors such as Technology, Industrials, Financials and Consumer Discretionary outperformed this fund's overweight positions defensive sectors such as Health Care, Consumer Staples, and Utilities. The Fund is designed to incrementally reduce equity exposure during periods of market stress and target lower volatility experience. As a result, the underperformance during increasing global equity markets is expected.

In April 2017, the Fund's target effective hedge against the U.S. Dollar ("USD") was re-established. The hedge ranged from 50% to 65% between April 5, 2017 and January 5, 2018, at which time it was removed. It was subsequently re-established at 50% on February 7, 2018 and was reduced to 25% on March 5, 2018. During the year, the Canadian dollar ("CAD") appreciated 3.33% against the USD; as a result, the currency hedge contributed to the Fund's performance. Also, the Fund has been generally unhedged against international currencies other than the USD. During the year, the CAD depreciated by 5.67% against a broad basket of international currencies, as weighted in the MSCI EAFE index. As a result, the Fund's non-USD currency exposures have had a positive performance impact on the Fund.

Net Assets

The Fund's NAV increased by $34.5 million, or 41.7%, to $117.3 million as at March 31, 2018, from $82.8 million at March 31, 2017. Of this increase, $30.0 million was attributable to net sales and $4.8 million due to investment performance (after deducting fees and expenses). This was partially offset by $0.3 million of distributions paid to securityholders.

Certain other investment products managed by Counsel's affiliates have large investments in the Fund, see Other Related Party Transactions for details. As a result of these investments, the Fund is subject to large transaction risk as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus. Counsel manages this risk to reduce the possibility of any adverse effect on the value of the Fund or on its investors, through such processes as requiring advance notice of large redemptions.

Fees and Expenses

The Management Expense Ratio ("MER") for Series A of 2.51%, during the year ended March 31, 2018, was lower than the MER of 2.61% for the year ended March 31, 2017. The decrease was due to reductions in the MERs of underlying equity funds due to their reduced investments in exchange traded funds. The MERs (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

In the sub-advisor's view/opinion, an improving global economic and earnings backdrop supported equity markets in 2017 and is expected to remain in place through the coming year, despite recent concerns on trade issues. While the fundamental backdrop remains positive, there are a number of risks emerging to equity markets in recent months. Most recently, concerns related to a potential global trade war have proliferated as President Trump continues with threats of imposing tariffs on U.S. imports from China causing equity markets to retreat from their earlier all-time highs with negative repercussions for global growth. Given the well-known costs associated with a full-blown trade war, it is not expected that such an escalation will occur.

In the sub-advisor's view/opinion, signs of higher wage and headline inflation in the U.S. earlier this year gave rise to fears of significantly more aggressive tightening of monetary policy by the U.S. Federal Reserve with potentially higher bond yields which could pose difficulties for equities. While some pick-up in inflation is likely, it is expected to be modest and not result in significantly higher bond yields or a significant increase in the pace of interest rate increases by the Federal Reserve and other central banks. Other issues which could negatively impact equity markets through the year include political uncertainties and tensions across Europe, the U.S., the Middle East and Asia.

The Fund currently has an effective partial target hedge against the USD. The USD hedge is dynamic and may vary between 0-100% at Counsel's discretion based on its assessment of currency market conditions. The Fund is expected to remain generally unhedged against currencies other than the USD for the foreseeable future.

Related Party Transactions

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Counsel at the annual rates specified under Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Simplified Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Counsel pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

Series Private Wealth securities are issued on a prospectus-exempt basis to investors in the IPC Private Wealth program offered by IPC Securities Corporation, an affiliate of Counsel. At March 31, 2018, Series Private Wealth investors owned 13.2% of the Fund's NAV. As of March 31, 2018, Counsel had not received notice of any large redemptions. All related party transactions are based on the NAV per security on each transaction day.

The Fund did not rely on an approval or positive recommendation from the Counsel Funds' Independent Review Committee (IRC) with respect to any related party transactions. The Fund has relied on standing instructions from the IRC with respect to asset re-allocations.

Management Fees

The Fund's management fees were used by the Manager to pay for: costs of managing the investment portfolio; providing investment analysis and recommendations; making investment decisions; the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio; and providing other services. The Manager also used the management fees to fund commission payments and other compensation (collectively, "Distribution Related Payments") paid to the dealers and brokers for securities of the Fund bought and held by investors.

The following dealers, who are affiliated with Counsel, may be entitled to Distribution Related Payments from Counsel on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation, Investors Group Financial Services Inc., and Quadrus Investment Services Ltd.

During the year, approximately 42% of the total management fee revenues received from all Counsel funds were used to fund Distribution Related Payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such Distribution Related Payments for the Fund represented 43% of the management fees paid. This amount is an average percentage of the management fees paid by all series. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions and sales commissions paid for that series.

Series Information

The Fund may issue an unlimited number of securities for each series. The number of issued and outstanding securities of each series is disclosed in Financial Highlights. A 10-year history of the major changes affecting the Fund can be found in the Fund's Annual Information Form, available at www.counsel-services.com.

² A negotiable advisory or asset-based fee (plus sales taxes) is payable by investors to their dealer(s) in connection with the securities held in this series. The fee may be collected by Counsel from the investor's account through redemption of securities and remitted to the dealer at the investor's request. Alternatively, the dealer may collect it directly from the investor. Investors in this series may be eligible for a management fee reduction subject to meeting certain requirements as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.

³ The management fee for this series is 0.90% and is payable directly to Counsel generally through the monthly redemption of securities.

⁸ This series is available solely to those investing through a private client service offering from IPC Investment Corporation and IPC Securities Corporation.

⁹ Prior to October 27, 2017, this series was called Series D.

Past Performance

The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns, including changes in NAV per security and assuming reinvestment of all distributions. They do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional sales charges, or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes, whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional securities. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar chart shows how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have increased or decreased by the end of the respective periods. For the first year of a series, the percentage shown will be the actual return of the series from its inception date, which can be found under Series Information. The chart illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed over time.

¹ These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. The information presented is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS.

² The net assets per security presented here and in the financial statements and this table may differ from the NAV per security.

³ NAV and distributions per security figures are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the financial period.

⁴ Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the MERs and Gross MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

⁶ The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as a percentage of daily average NAV during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of its Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

⁷ The portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the portfolio advisor manages the investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher PTR in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high PTR and the performance of the Fund. Costs incurred to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, are excluded from the PTR.
