Management Discussion of Fund Performance

June 6, 2017

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance intends to present the significant factors and developments during the year ended March 31, 2017, that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook. For information on the Fund's longer-term performance, as applicable, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report. In this report, "Counsel" or "the Manager" refers to Counsel Portfolio Services Inc., the manager of the Fund.

In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund or a series as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks to achieve long term capital growth by investing in securities of a variety of Canadian, U.S. and international equity and fixed income mutual funds. The Fund's asset class weightings will generally be 70 – 85% in equity securities and 15 – 30% in fixed income securities.

Risk

The risks of investing in the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.

The Fund is suitable for investors who: seek a balance between global equity and fixed income securities, want a medium to long-term investment, can handle the ups and downs of stock, bond, and currency markets, and have a low to medium tolerance for risk.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund's Series A securities is discussed below. The performance of all other series offered by the Fund is shown in the Past Performance section of this report. Series returns may differ for a number of reasons, including if the series was not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period and because of different levels of fees and expenses charged to each series. Please refer to the Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by series.

During the 12-month period, the Fund's Series A securities returned 7.01% (after deducting fees and expenses). This compares with the 14.93% return of the blended index comprised of 20% FTSE TMX Canada Bond Universe Total Return Index, 60% MSCI World Total Return Index and 20% S&P/TSX Composite Index (the "Blended Index"). All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. The returns of all components of the Blended Index are available in the Annual Compound Return section of this report. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, none of which are reflected in the index returns.

The Fund underperformed the broad-based MSCI World Total Return Index, which returned 18.33%. The broad-based index is comprised of equities and has no exposure to fixed income securities, whereas the Fund invests in equity and fixed-income mutual funds. Given the Fund's composition, the Blended Index provides a more meaningful comparison.

The Fund underperformed the Blended Index due to the performance of its underlying U.S. equity components, an overweighting of the Real Estate sector compared to the broader MSCI World, and the more conservative positioning of the underlying fund Counsel Global Trend Strategy which reduced the Fund's exposure to the worldwide equity market during its late 2016 rally.

The Fund's investment in Counsel U.S. Value detracted primarily due to an overweight allocation to the Consumer Discretionary sector. Security selection within the Information Technology and Financials sectors also detracted from performance. Counsel U.S. Growth detracted from performance primarily due to an underweight allocation to and security selection within the Materials and Information Technology sectors and no exposure to Industrials, Energy, Utilities, or Telecommunication Services. Being overweight to and stock selection within the Consumer Discretionary sector also detracted from performance.

The Fund's investment in Counsel Fixed Income contributed positively to performance due to its exposure to high yield fixed income and global fixed income securities, which outperformed investment grade fixed income securities. Its underweight exposure to federal bonds and overweight exposure to corporate bonds also contributed positively to performance.

From April 1, 2016 to November 21, 2016, the underlying equity funds' target hedge ranged from 50% to 85% against the U.S. Dollar ("USD"). During this period, the Canadian dollar ("CAD") depreciated 2.99% against the USD; as a result, the currency hedge detracted from the Fund's performance. During the remainder of the year, with the hedge removed, the CAD appreciated 0.13% against the USD resulting in a slightly negative impact to the Fund's performance. Over the year, the underlying equity funds have been generally unhedged against international currencies other than the USD. During the period, the CAD appreciated by 2.87% against a broad basket of international currencies, as weighted in the MSCI EAFE Index. As a result, the Fund's non-USD currency exposures have had a negative performance impact on the Fund.

Net Assets

The Fund's NAV increased by $23.1 million, or 6.3%, to $388.0 million at March 31, 2017, from $364.9 million at March 31, 2016. Of this increase, $27.4 million was attributable to investment performance (after deducting fees and expenses) partially offset by $4.3 million of net redemptions.

Certain other Counsel Funds ("Top Funds") and/or investment products managed by Counsel's affiliates have large investments in the Fund, see Other Related Party Transactions for details. As a result of these investments, the Fund is subject to large transaction risk as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus. Counsel manages this risk to reduce the possibility of any adverse effect on the value of the Fund or on its investors, through such processes as requiring advance notice of large redemptions.

Fees and Expenses

The Management Expense Ratio ("MER") for Series A of 2.84%, during the year ended March 31, 2017, was lower than the MER of 3.00% for the year ended March 31, 2016. The MER decreased due to a reduction of management fees effective October 28, 2016, as noted in the Series Information section of the report. Because the fee reduction was only in place for a portion of the period, it is anticipated that the MER will be lower in the next reporting period. The MERs (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

The pace to which central banks raise interest rates is a key focus for investors. Previously, investors were generally concerned about low growth and inflation. However, by early 2017, the concern was "reflation" as global economic growth exceeded forecasts, inflation edged higher, and the U.S. Federal Reserve (the "Fed") warned of a faster pace of rate increases. This earlier expectation of sharp rate increases turned out to be unwarranted, and it is believed the current optimism will prove likewise.

Global growth has increased, but not enough to justify the optimism priced into North American equity markets. There are plenty of challenges for the global economy, not the least of which is tightening monetary policy by the Fed and a slowing Chinese economy. It seems that U.S. equity markets are deeply overvalued and a pullback seems likely once such lofty expectations rationalize. Counsel is more optimistic in areas such as Europe and emerging markets, where a combination of good value and economic momentum are positive indicators. However, markets may be overestimating the ability of the new U.S. administration to boost the U.S. economy and forgetting that the U.S. economy is near full capacity. This means that any stimulus is likely to be offset by a more aggressive Fed to contain inflation pressures.

The Canadian economy continues to surprise naysayers. Improvements in economic and employment trends have contributed to the steady rise in domestic equities from early 2016 lows. Counsel believes that, although the probability of a recession is low, vulnerabilities exist which should not be ignored. Rising inflation as well as higher bond yields are not a true reflection of robust internal demand nor are capacity constraints pointing to an economy set to overheat. Conversely, higher bond yields, without sustainable strength in economic growth, could inadvertently tighten financial conditions and stifle economic growth.

In April 2017, the underlying equity funds' USD target hedge was increased from 0% to 50%. The USD hedge is dynamic and may vary between 0-100%. It is expected that, in the near term, the underlying equity funds will remain generally unhedged against foreign currencies other than the USD.

Related Party Transactions

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Counsel at the annual rates specified under Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Simplified Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Counsel pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

Series Private Wealth securities are issued on a prospectus-exempt basis to investors in the IPC Private Wealth program offered by IPC Securities Corporation, an affiliate of Counsel. At March 31, 2017, Series Private Wealth investors owned 2.8% of the Fund's NAV. As of March 31, 2017, Counsel had not received notice of any large redemptions. All related party transactions are based on the NAV per security on each transaction day.

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation, or standing instruction from the Counsel Funds' Independent Review Committee with respect to any related party transactions.

Management Fees

The Fund's management fees were used by the Manager to pay for: costs of managing the investment portfolio; providing investment analysis and recommendations; making investment decisions; the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio; and providing other services. The Manager also used the management fees to fund commission payments and other compensation (collectively, "Distribution Related Payments") paid to the dealers and brokers for securities of the Fund bought and held by investors.

The following dealers, who are affiliated with Counsel, may be entitled to Distribution Related Payments from Counsel on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation, Investors Group Financial Services Inc. and Quadrus Investment Services Ltd.

During the year, approximately 42% of the total management fee revenues received from all Counsel funds were used to fund Distribution Related Payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such Distribution Related Payments for the Fund represented 43% of the management fees paid. This amount is an average percentage of the management fees paid by all series. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions and sales commissions paid for that series. The higher proportion of Distribution Related Payments is primarily attributable to commissions related to sales of redemption charge securities of the Fund.

Series Information

The Fund may issue an unlimited number of securities for each series. The number of issued and outstanding securities of each series is disclosed in Financial Highlights. A 10-year history of the major changes affecting the Fund can be found in the Fund's Annual Information Form, available at www.counselinvestments.com.

<sup>2</sup> A negotiable advisory or asset-based fee (plus sales taxes) is payable by investors to their dealer(s) in connection with the securities held in this series. The fee may be collected by Counsel from the investor's account through redemption of securities and remitted to the dealer at the investor's request. Alternatively, the dealer may collect it directly from the investor. Investors in this series may be eligible for a management fee reduction subject to meeting certain requirements as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.

<sup>3</sup> Effective October 28, 2016, the Series A management fee was reduced from 2.36% to 2.06% and the Series D administration fee was reduced from 0.31% to 0.15%. Additionally, the minimum investment for Series I was reduced from $150,000 to $1,000.

<sup>6</sup> The management fee for this series is 1.07% and is payable directly to Counsel generally through the monthly redemption of securities.

<sup>7</sup> There are no management fees for Series Private Wealth. An investor must enter into an agreement to participate in the IPC Private Wealth Program and agree to pay certain asset-based fees. Prior to November 21, 2016, this series was called Series P.

<sup>8</sup> Counsel may, at its discretion, waive or lower the management fee (either directly or indirectly) and/or administration fee payable by investors.

<sup>9</sup> This series is available solely to those investing through a private client service offering from IPC Investment Corporation and IPC Securities Corporation.

Past Performance

The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns, including changes in NAV per security and assuming reinvestment of all distributions. They do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional sales charges, or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes, whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional securities. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Past performance may have been impacted by the following events:

- During some performance measurement periods certain fees or expenses may have been waived or absorbed by the Manager. There is no assurance that fees will be waived in the future.
- In January 2010, the Fund began to pay a fixed administration fee. In exchange, the Manager began to pay certain operating costs and expenses that had previously been paid by the Fund.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar chart shows how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have increased or decreased by the end of the respective periods (which is September 30 until 2008, and March 31 thereafter). For the first year of a series, the percentage shown will be the actual return of the series from its inception date, which can be found under Series Information. The chart illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed over time.

<sup>1</sup> These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. Effective April 1, 2013, information presented is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS. Prior to April 1, 2013, if applicable, information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements, prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP, as defined in Part V of the CPA Canada Handbook.

<sup>2</sup> The net assets per security presented here and in the financial statements and this table may differ from the NAV per security.

<sup>3</sup> Effective April 1, 2013, commissions and other portfolio transaction costs are included in total expenses. Prior to April 1, 2013, if applicable, these costs were reported within realized and unrealized gains (losses) for the period for the purposes of these tables.

<sup>5</sup> Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

<sup>6</sup> MER and MER before waivers or absorptions ("Gross MER") are based on total expenses borne by the Fund, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily NAV during the period. In the period a series is established, the MERs and Gross MERs are annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. MER and Gross MER may be impacted by proposed decreases in management fees and/or administration fees as discussed under Series Information.

Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the MERs and Gross MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

<sup>7</sup> The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as a percentage of daily average NAV during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of its Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

<sup>8</sup> The portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the portfolio advisor manages the investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher PTR in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high PTR and the performance of the Fund. Costs incurred to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, are excluded from the PTR.
