Our strategy is to select money managers with successful and repeatable investment processes. We then help Advisors build investment portfolios by combining those managers into an optimized mix that meets investors' long term goals, while managing the risks taken in achieving those goals.

At the heart of our process is the view that our investment specialists must continue to earn a place in our portfolios, year after year. Because of this view, we conduct a regular and ongoing review process. This gives us the ability to objectively select and, when necessary, replace the investment specialists for each mandate.
