Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 11, 2021

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the views of Counsel Portfolio Services Inc. (“Counsel”) on the significant factors and developments during the period ended September 30, 2021 that have affected the Fund’s performance and outlook. For information on the Fund’s longer-term performance, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report.

In addition, net asset value (NAV) refers to the value of the Fund or a series, as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund’s Series A securities is discussed below. The performance of all other series offered by the Fund is shown in the Past Performance section of this report. Where series returns differ, it is primarily because different levels of fees and expenses were charged to each series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by series.

During the six-month period, the Fund’s Series A securities returned 9.60% (after deducting fees and expenses). This compares with an 8.73% return of the broad-based S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index and an 7.47% return of the style-based MSCI Canada Growth Index. All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses, and commissions, none of which are reflected in the index returns.

Canadian equities continued their upward momentum over the period, reaching new highs as ongoing COVID-19 vaccination programs and broader use of health and safety protocols facilitated further economic reopening. Significant government and central bank stimulus, both globally and in Canada, continued to underpin economic growth and equity valuations. The combination of economic reopening and tight supply supported a strong rise in oil prices, benefiting the Canadian energy sector. Within the S&P/TSX Composite Index, Information Technology, Energy and Real Estate were the strongest sectors, while Health Care, Consumer Discretionary and Materials were the weakest.

The broad-based index is designed to measure the performance of the overall Canadian equity market, whereas the Fund invests with a focus on growth-oriented equities. Given the Fund’s composition, the style-based index provides a more meaningful comparison for relative performance.

The Fund outperformed the broad-based index due to its underweight allocation to Health Care and overweight exposure to Information Technology sector. The Fund also benefitted from security selection within the Information Technology, Financials, and Industrials sector. The Fund outperformed its style-based index primarily due to security selection in the Information Technology, Energy, and Health Care sector.

Net Assets

The Fund’s NAV increased by $28.7 million, or 22.7%, to $155.1 million as at September 30, 2021, from $126.4 million at March 31, 2021. Of this increase, $15.1 million was attributable to net sales and $13.6 million to investment performance (after deducting fees and expenses).

Fees and Expenses

The Management Expense Ratio (“MER”) for Series A of 2.41%, during the period ended September 30, 2021, was unchanged from the year ended March 31, 2021. The MERs for all series (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

Ongoing uncertainty regarding the duration and long-term impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and the implementation of vaccination programs, as well as the efficacy of government and central bank monetary and fiscal interventions, may continue to affect the Fund’s performance in future periods.

The Fund’s sub-advisor notes that market dynamics have evolved after digesting an environment of peak growth rates/peak stimulus after the rapid recovery associated with vaccinations and re-opening. Focus has shifted to ongoing supply chain disruptions, prolonged ‘transitory’ inflation and in the short term, concerns over the U.S. debt ceiling, and other fiscal matters. The sub-advisor continues to see room for growth in equities, in general, but believes market leadership and themes will continue to rotate among sectors in the months ahead. As the sub-advisor’s economic cycle model is now firmly pointing to decelerating economic growth, it is important to note that mid-cycle slowdowns are typical and often offer opportunities for stock-pickers as dispersion widens across equity market constituents. Yet this particular slowdown, coupled with inflation risk that is more prolonged than “transitory” in nature, could point toward the potential for a stagflationary environment. As a result, prudent asset allocation will need to give significant consideration to the risk of any asset.

Effective September 22, 2021, Atul Tiwari was appointed to the Counsel Funds’ Independent Review Committee.

Related Party Transactions

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Counsel at the annual rates specified under Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Simplified Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Counsel pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

Other investment funds managed by Counsel (“Top Funds”) invest in Series O securities offered by the Fund on a prospectus-exempt basis in accordance with the investment objectives of those funds. Series Private Wealth securities are issued on a prospectus-exempt basis to investors in discretionary managed account programs offered by IPC Securities Corporation, an affiliate of Counsel. During the period, the Fund did not rely on an approval, standing instruction, or positive recommendation from the Counsel Funds’ Independent Review Committee (“IRC”) with respect to any related party transactions. At September 30, 2021, Top Funds owned 84.7% of the Fund’s NAV and Series Private Wealth investors owned 4.5% of the Fund’s NAV. As of September 30, 2021, Counsel had not received notice of any large redemptions. All related party transactions are based on the NAV per security on each transaction day.

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation, or standing instruction from the Counsel Funds’ Independent Review Committee (“IRC”) with respect to any related party transactions.

Management Fees

The management fee for each applicable series is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The Fund's management fees were used by the Manager to pay for: costs of managing the investment portfolio; providing investment analysis and recommendations; making investment decisions; the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio; and providing other services. The Manager also used the management fees to fund trailing commissions and other compensation (collectively, "Distribution Related Payments") paid to registered dealers and brokers whose clients invest in the Fund.

The following dealers, who are affiliated with Counsel, may be entitled to Distribution Related Payments from Counsel on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation, Investors Group Financial Services Inc. and Quadrus Investment Services Ltd.

During the period, approximately 33% of the total management fee revenues received from all Counsel funds were used to fund Distribution Related Payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such Distribution Related Payments for the Fund represented 36% of the management fees paid. This amount is an average percentage of the management fees paid by all series. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions paid for that series. The higher proportion of Distribution Related Payments is primarily attributable to the higher proportion of retail investors in series which pay a trailer fee compared to other Counsel Funds.

Past Performance

The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns, including changes in NAV per security and assuming reinvestment of all distributions. They do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional sales charges, management fees directly payable by investors or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. Returns for each series primarily differ because fees and expenses vary for each series. Please refer to Series Information for further information. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes, whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional securities. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar chart shows how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have increased or decreased by the end of the respective periods. For the first year of a series, the percentage shown will be the actual return of the series from its inception date, which can be found under Series Information. The chart illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed over time.

² MER and MER before waivers or absorptions ("Gross MER") are based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily NAV during the period. In the period a series is established, the MERs and Gross MERs are annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. MER and Gross MER may be impacted by decreases and/or increases in management fees and/or administration fees as discussed under Series Information. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the MERs and Gross MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

³ The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as an annualized percentage of the daily average NAV during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of its Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

⁴ The portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the portfolio advisor manages the investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher PTR in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high PTR and the performance of the Fund. Costs incurred to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, are excluded from the PTR.
