Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 11, 2021

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the views of Counsel Portfolio Services Inc. (“Counsel”) on the significant factors and developments during the period ended September 30, 2021 that have affected the Fund’s performance and outlook. For information on the Fund’s longer-term performance, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report.

In addition, net asset value (NAV) refers to the value of the Fund or a series, as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund’s Series A securities is discussed below. The performance of all other series offered by the Fund is shown in the Past Performance section of this report. Where series returns differ, it is primarily because different levels of fees and expenses were charged to each series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by series.

During the six-month period, the Fund’s Series A securities returned -0.20% (after deducting fees and expenses). This compares with an 8.59% return for the broad based MSCI World Total Return Index and a 2.05% return for the mandate-specific MSCI ACWI High Dividend Yield Total Return Index. All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses, and commissions, none of which are reflected in the index returns.

The period was characterized by rising commodity prices, supply chain issues and rolling economic interruptions worldwide due to the emergence of the COVID-19 Delta variant. In China, efforts to regulate e-commerce, online gaming and for-profit education led to a sharp decline in equity valuations. Despite the largest monthly decline of 2021 in September, global markets ended the period higher. Within the MSCI World High Dividend Yield Index, Israel, the Netherlands and Denmark were the strongest-performing countries, while Belgium, Spain and Hong Kong were the weakest. The Consumer Discretionary, Energy and Financials sectors were the strongest performers, while Materials, Communication Services and Real Estate were the weakest.

The Fund underperformed the broad-based MSCI World Total Return Index which is designed to measure the performance of developed equity markets, whereas the Fund invests with a focus on dividend-yielding equities. Given the Fund’s composition, the mandate-specific index provides a more meaningful comparison for relative performance. The Fund underperformed the MSCI ACWI High Dividend Yield Total Return Index primarily due to asset allocation and security selection decisions in Japan, as well as security selection within the Consumer Discretionary sector.

During the period, the U.S. dollar (“USD”) appreciated 0.75% against the Canadian dollar (“CAD”). As a result, the Fund’s USD exposures contributed to returns. The target hedge against the USD, which increased from 37.5% to 50% during the period, detracted relative to the unhedged indices. The Euro (“EUR”) and British Pound (“GBP”) depreciated 0.48% and 1.23% respectively against the CAD detracting from the Fund’s performance. Target hedges maintained throughout the period of 50% and 25% against the EUR and GBP respectively partially offset this impact. Additionally, the Japanese Yen (“JPY”) appreciated 0.21% against the CAD contributing to the Fund’s performance.

Net Assets

The Fund’s NAV declined by $2.0 million, or 2.1%, to $90.4 million as at September 30, 2021, from $92.4 million at March 31, 2021. Of this decrease, $2.8 million was attributable to net redemptions and partially offset by a $0.8 million increase due to investment performance (after deducting fees and expenses).

Fees and Expenses

The Management Expense Ratio (“MER”) for Series A of 2.66%, during the period ended September 30, 2021, was unchanged from the year ended March 31, 2021. The MERs for all series (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

Ongoing uncertainty regarding the duration and long-term impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and the implementation of vaccination programs, as well as the efficacy of government and central bank monetary and fiscal interventions, may continue to affect the Fund’s performance in future periods.

The sub-advisor notes that while the global economy is expected to grow, momentum has slowed. Sizable uncertainty remains, and risks are skewed to the downside as COVID-19 has re-emerged as a dominant factor, swaths of the population remain unvaccinated, and many governments have depleted their fiscal firepower. Some economies, particularly emerging nations, have not only exhausted their fiscal arsenal, but have redirected monetary tools to quell rising inflation rather than stimulate growth.

Inflation remains a headwind to growth and if transitory inflation morphs into a more pervasive pressure, it could prompt more widespread preemptive actions by central banks. Most notably, inflation has risen sharply in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and some emerging-market economies. While some of the inflationary pressures emanated from unusual pandemic-related developments, such as transient supply-demand mismatches and supply-side bottlenecks, the rise of inflation suggests there may be a more persistent element. Many emerging-market economies are particularly vulnerable to the risks of rising food and fuel prices. Some countries, including Brazil, Russia, and Mexico, have had to clamp down on liquidity and raise rates to rein in inflation. Policy miscalculations, including premature or overly aggressive tightening, could thwart the recovery and stunt growth. Even transitioning from recovery-related policies to steady-state policies could result in missteps.

Effective September 22, 2021, Atul Tiwari was appointed to the Counsel Funds’ Independent Review Committee.

Effective October 15, 2021, Counsel eliminated the Fund’s hedges against foreign currencies. Currency hedging is dynamic and may vary between 0-100% at our discretion based on our assessment of currency market conditions.

Related Party Transactions

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Counsel at the annual rates specified under Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Simplified Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Counsel pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

Other investment funds managed by Counsel (“Top Funds”) invest in Series O securities offered by the Fund on a prospectus-exempt basis in accordance with the investment objectives of those funds. Series Private Wealth securities are issued on a prospectus-exempt basis to investors in discretionary managed account programs offered by IPC Securities Corporation, an affiliate of Counsel. As a result of these investments, the Fund is subject to large transaction risk as discussed in its Simplified Prospectus. Counsel manages this risk to reduce the possibility of any adverse effect on the Fund or on its investors, through such processes as requiring advance notice of large redemptions. At September 30, 2021, Top Funds owned 40.1% of the Fund’s NAV and Series Private Wealth investors owned 26.1% of the Fund’s NAV. As of September 30, 2021, Counsel had not received notice of any large redemptions. All related party transactions are based on the NAV per security on each transaction day.

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation, or standing instruction from the Counsel Funds’ Independent Review Committee (“IRC”) with respect to any related party transactions.

Management Fees

The management fee for each applicable series is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The Fund’s management fees were used by the Manager to pay for: costs of managing the investment portfolio; providing investment analysis and recommendations; making investment decisions; the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio; and providing other services. The Manager also used the management fees to fund trailing commissions and other compensation (collectively, “Distribution Related Payments”) paid to registered dealers and brokers whose clients invest in the Fund.

The following dealers, who are affiliated with Counsel, may be entitled to Distribution Related Payments from Counsel on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation, Investors Group Financial Services Inc. and Quadrus Investment Services Ltd.

During the period, approximately 33% of the total management fee revenues received from all Counsel funds were used to fund Distribution Related Payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such Distribution Related Payments for the Fund represented 37% of the management fees paid. This amount is an average percentage of the management fees paid by all series. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions paid for that series. The higher proportion of Distribution Related Payments is primarily attributable to the higher proportion of retail investors in series which pay a trailer fee compared to other Counsel Funds.

Past Performance

The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns, including changes in NAV per security and assuming reinvestment of all distributions. They do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional sales charges, management fees directly payable by investors or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. Returns for each series primarily differ because fees and expenses vary for each series. Please refer to Series Information for further information. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

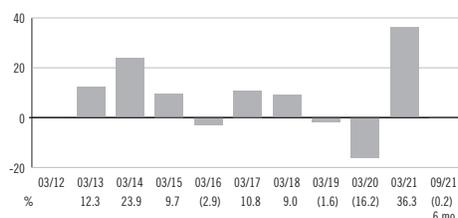

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes, whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional securities. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar chart shows how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have increased or decreased by the end of the respective periods. For the first year of a series, the percentage shown will be the actual return of the series from its inception date, which can be found under Series Information. The chart illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed over time.

<sup>1</sup> These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. The information presented is derived from the Fund's financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS. The net assets presented here in this table and in the financial statements may differ from the NAV; an explanation of these differences can be found in Note 2 of the Fund's Financial Statements.

<sup>3</sup> Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

<sup>2</sup> MER and MER before waivers or absorptions ("Gross MER") are based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily NAV during the period. In the period a series is established, the MERs and Gross MERs are annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. MER and Gross MER may be impacted by decreases and/or increases in management fees and/or administration fees as discussed under Series Information. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the MERs and Gross MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

<sup>3</sup> The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as an annualized percentage of the daily average NAV during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of its Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

<sup>4</sup> The portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the portfolio advisor manages the investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher PTR in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high PTR and the performance of the Fund. Costs incurred to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, are excluded from the PTR.

<sup>2</sup> A negotiable advisory or asset-based fee (plus sales taxes) is payable by investors to their dealer(s) in connection with the securities held in this series. The fee may be collected by Counsel from the investor's account through redemption of securities and remitted to the dealer at the investor's request. Alternatively, the dealer may collect it directly from the investor.

<sup>3</sup> The management fee for this series is 1.10% and is payable directly to Counsel generally through the monthly redemption of securities.

<sup>4</sup> There are no management or administration fees for this series since these securities are designed to facilitate fund-of-fund investing where duplication of management fees is prohibited.

<sup>5</sup> There are no management fees for Series Private Wealth. An investor must enter into an agreement to participate in a discretionary managed program offered by IPC Securities Corporation and agree to pay certain asset-based fees.

<sup>6</sup> Counsel may, at its discretion, waive or lower the management fee (either directly or indirectly) and/or administration fee payable by investors. Individual investors may be eligible for a management fee reduction subject to meeting certain requirements as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.
