Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 11, 2021

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the views of Counsel Portfolio Services Inc. (“Counsel”) on the significant factors and developments during the period ended September 30, 2021 that have affected the Fund’s performance and outlook. For information on the Fund’s longer-term performance, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report.

In addition, net asset value (NAV) refers to the value of the Fund or a series, as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund’s Series Private Wealth securities is discussed below. The performance of all other series offered by the Fund is shown in the Past Performance section of this report. Where series returns differ, it is primarily because different levels of fees and expenses were charged to each series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by series.

During the six-month period, the Fund’s Series Private Wealth securities returned –0.43% (after deducting fees and expenses). This compares with a –0.24% return of the JP Morgan Global Aggregate Bond Index (the “Index”). All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, none of which are reflected in the index returns.

Accommodative monetary and fiscal policies across Group of Ten (“G10”) countries supported economic recovery in the period. Norway’s Norges Bank became the first major Western central bank to increase interest rates, while the Bank of England and the U.S. Federal Reserve held rates steady. A rebound in the prices of higher-risk assets, including high-yield bonds, was supported by demand, given more than US$14 trillion of negative-yielding debt and increased confidence in a strong economic rebound.

The Fund underperformed the Index primarily due to currency positions. Among currencies, overweighted positions in Latin America (the Brazilian real, Argentine peso and Chilean peso) and Asia ex Japan (the South Korean won) detracted from relative performance. The Fund maintained a defensive approach regarding interest rates in developed markets, while holding longer duration exposures in select emerging markets. Overweighted duration exposures in Latin America had mixed results (Argentina contributed, while Brazil detracted).

Net Assets

The Fund’s NAV declined by $1.3 million, or 2.8%, to $44.5 million as at September 30, 2021, from $45.8 million at March 31, 2021. Of this decrease, $1.1 million was attributable to net redemptions and $0.2 million to investment performance (after deducting fees and expenses).

Fees and Expenses

The Management Expense Ratio (“MER”) for Series Private Wealth of 0.17%, during the period ended September 30, 2021, was unchanged from the year ended March 31, 2021. Please note that no management fees are charged to Series Private Wealth; see the Series Information section of this report for further details. The MERs for all series (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

Ongoing uncertainty regarding the duration and long-term impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and the implementation of vaccination programs, as well as the efficacy of government and central bank monetary and fiscal interventions, may continue to affect the Fund’s performance in future periods.

The sub-advisor expects macroeconomic conditions in much of the world to continue to improve through the remainder of 2021 into 2022. However, economic recoveries are likely to remain uneven as countries are at different stages of handling the pandemic. Several emerging markets continue to lag the rest of the world in distributing vaccines, while others, like Chile, are close to the levels of developed markets. Some countries have begun to transition towards a post-COVID order, providing third-dose booster shots, developing non-vaccine treatments and/or pivoting towards a policy stance of “living with COVID-19” to move beyond the damaging cycles of lockdowns and reopenings. Generally, the sub-advisor remains optimistic for the ongoing global recovery, particularly for a number of emerging markets that stand to benefit from strong trade dynamics.

Effective September 22, 2021, Atul Tiwari was appointed to the Counsel Funds’ Independent Review Committee.

Related Party Transactions

Management and Administration Services

For Series Private Wealth, the Fund paid administration fees to Counsel at the annual rates specified under Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Simplified Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Counsel pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund. No management fees are paid by the Fund.

Other Related Party Transactions

Other investment funds managed by Counsel (“Top Funds”) invest in Series O securities offered by the Fund on a prospectus-exempt basis in accordance with the investment objectives of those funds. Series Private Wealth securities are issued on a prospectus-exempt basis to investors in discretionary managed account programs offered by IPC Securities Corporation, an affiliate of Counsel. As a result of these investments, the Fund is subject to large transaction risk as discussed in the Counsel Funds’ Simplified Prospectus. Counsel manages this risk to reduce the possibility of any adverse effect on the Fund or on its investors, through such processes as requiring advance notice of large redemptions. At September 30, 2021, Top Funds owned 25.9% of the Fund’s NAV and Series Private Wealth investors owned 74.1% of the Fund’s NAV. As of September 30, 2021, Counsel had not received notice of any large redemptions. All related party transactions are based on the NAV per security on each transaction day.

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation, or standing instruction from the Counsel Funds’ Independent Review Committee (“IRC”) with respect to any related party transactions.

Past Performance

The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compound total returns, including changes in NAV per security and assuming reinvestment of all distributions. They do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional sales charges, management fees directly payable by investors or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. Returns for each series primarily differ because fees and expenses vary for each series. Please refer to Series Information for further information. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes, whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional securities. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar chart shows how much an investment made on the first day of each financial year would have increased or decreased by the end of the respective periods. For the first year of a series, the percentage shown will be the actual return of the series from its inception date, which can be found under Series Information. The chart illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed over time.

The net assets presented here in this table and in the financial statements may differ from the NAV; an explanation of these differences can be found in Note 2 of the Fund's Financial Statements.

² MER and MER before waivers or absorptions ("Gross MER") are based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of average daily NAV during the period. In the period a series is established, the MERs and Gross MERs are annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. MER and Gross MER may be impacted by decreases and/or increases in management fees and/or administration fees as discussed under Series Information. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the MERs and Gross MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

³ The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as an annualized percentage of the daily average NAV during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of an Underlying Fund, the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of its Underlying Fund(s) attributable to this investment.

⁴ The portfolio turnover rate ("PTR") indicates how actively the portfolio advisor manages the investments. A PTR of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher PTR in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high PTR and the performance of the Fund. Costs incurred to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, are excluded from the PTR.
